... TO BE HAPPY AND BETTER ...

All hearts grow warmer in the presence
 Of one who, seeking not his own,
 Gave freely for the love of giving,
 Nor reaped for self the harvest sown.
 Thy greetings smile were pledge and prelude
 Of generous deeds and kindly word;
 In thy large heart were fair guest-chambers,
 Open to sunrise and the birds.

REACHING: WITH SUCCESS AS OUR GOAL . . .

If I can stop one heart from breaking,
I shall not live in vain;
If I can ease one life the aching,
Or cool one pain,
Or help one fainting robin
Unto his nest again,
I shall not live in vain;

REACHING: INTELLECTUALLY LEARNING THE VALUE OF FRIENDSHIP

Begin the day with friendliness
And only friends you'll find.
Yes, greet the dawn with happiness;
Keep happy thoughts in mind.
Salute the day with peaceful thoughts.
And peace will fill your heart;
Begin the day with joyful soul,
And joy will be your part.

Begin the day with friendliness;
Keep friendly all day long;
Keep in your soul a friendly thought,
Your heart a friendly song.
Have in your mind a word of cheer
For all who come your way,
And they will bless you too, in turn,
And wish you "Happy day!"

Begin each day with friendly thoughts,
And as the day goes on,
Keep friendly, loving, good, and kind,
Just as you were at dawn.
The day will be a friendly one,
And then at night you'll find
That you were happy all day long.
Through friendly thoughts in mind.

—FRANK B. WHITNEY

REACHING: AIMING OUR LIVES ...

I slept and dreamed that life was Beauty;
I woke and found that life was Duty.
Was thy dream then a shadowy lie?
Toil on, poor heart unceasingly;
And thou shalt find thy dream to be
A truth and noonday light to thee.

—Ellen Sturgis Hooper

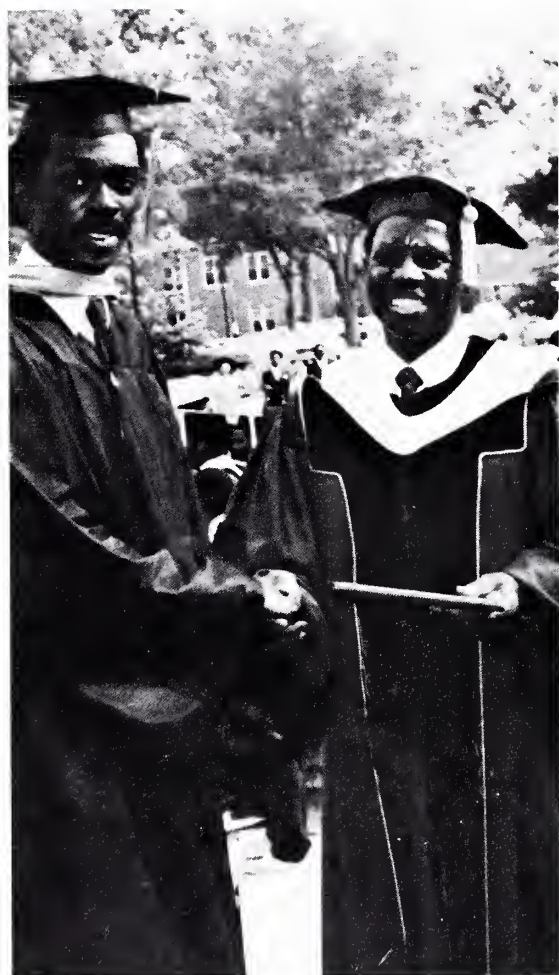

REACHING: MEETING NEW CHALLENGES . . .

What if I have eyes that do not see
 This gaily colored world of forms and show;
 What if in the dark I always go,
 My footsteps led by sounds and memory;
 What if autumn never dressed a tree
 In golden brown for me to love and know;
 And what if the sunset always hides its glow,
 And morning's dawn does not unveil to me:

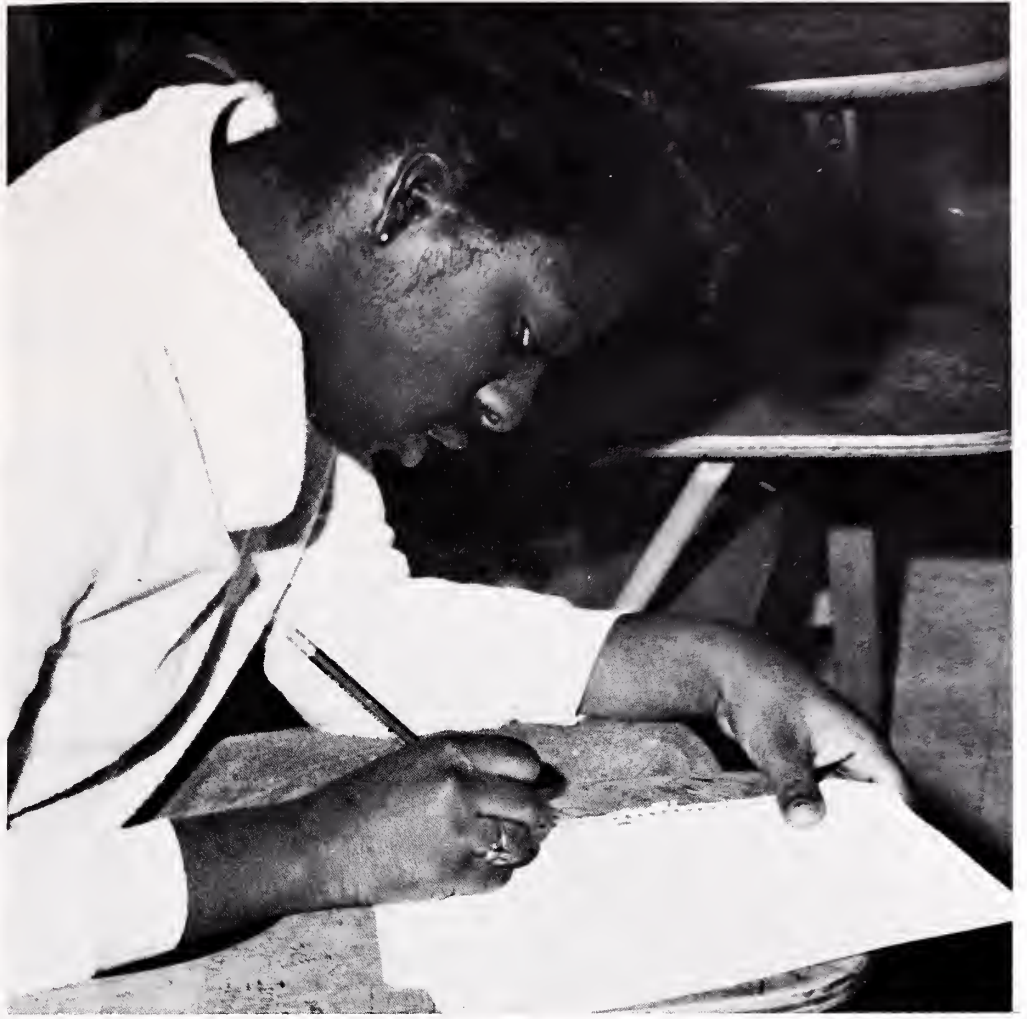

My father gave me strength of soul and mine;
 My mother taught me how to laugh and pray;
 My ears and nose and fingers are designed
 To bring me knowledge, beauty, work, and play—
 I do not envy those who see the light,
 For I know my way and have no fear of night.

G.K. Chesterton

A SALUTE TO EXCELLENCE IN LEADERSHIP . . .

LUNS COLUMBUS RICHARDSON

TEACHER AND HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL, DOCK-WORKER AND HOSPITAL ORDERLY, PASTOR AND CHAPLAIN, PROFESSOR AND ADMINISTRATOR IN INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION, YOU HAVE DEMONSTRATED THAT HIGH IDEALS, LONG-RANGE GOALS, EDUCATION, SELF-RELIANCE, AND HARD WORK CAN STILL YIELD REWARDS IN AMERICAN SOCIETY. YOU HAVE HEARD AND HEEDDED EMERSON'S ADMONITIONS, LEARNING THAT ONE BRINGS TO THE MOMENT OF DIFFICULT RESPONSIBILITY THE STRENGTH OF "A WHOLE LIFE'S CULTIVATION," AND SHOWING THAT "THE INMOST IN DUE TIME BECOMES THE OUTMOST." IN SEVEN YEARS AS PRESIDENT OF MORRIS COLLEGE, YOU HAVE REVITALIZED A ONCE MORIBUND INSTITUTION, THEREBY EARNING THE GRATITUDE OF THE CITIZENS OF SUMTER COUNTY, WHILE VASTLY IMPROVING THE FACILITIES OF YOUR CAMPUS, YOU HAVE ARTICULATED IDEALS OF SOCIAL SERVICE AND DEMONSTRATED THAT COLLEGES, LIKE INDIVIDUALS, SHOULD BE GOOD CITIZENS CLOSE TO HOME. AND HUNDREDS OF GRADUATES OF MORRIS BEAR WITNESS TO YOUR CONVICTION ABOUT THE HIDDEN POTENTIAL IN DISADVANTAGED AND UNDERACHIEVING STUDENTS. TEACHERS COLLEGE TAKES PLEASURE IN PRESENTING YOU WITH THIS DISTINGUISHED ALUMNUS AWARD.

1981 COMMENCEMENT: SENIORS

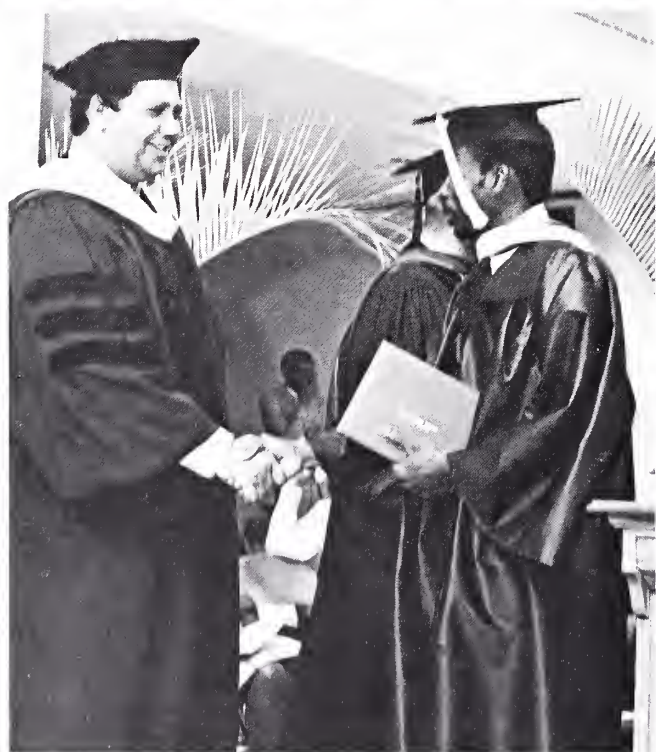

Graduation Speaker

Mayor Maynard H. Jackson, Atlanta, Georgia, was the guest speaker at the 70th Annual Commencement Exercise. The Exercise was held at 4:00 p.m. Sunday, May 17 on the front lawn of the Wilson-Booker Science Building.

A Texas native, Jackson was born in Dallas in 1938. He was educated in the public schools of Atlanta. He attended Morehouse College and received a law degree from North Carolina Central University. In 1973 Maynard Jackson became the first black to be elected mayor of a major southern city. In his administration, Jackson has sought to generate confidence in Atlanta's future among the business community, whose investments would provide the city with new jobs and revenues.

Jackson delivered a tremendous speech and received a standing ovation from the audience. He was good!

DEPART TO SERVE . . .

Seniors begin their walk down the road to success and happiness.

Everyone listens to the great message being delivered by Mayor Maynard Jackson.

Seniors wait patiently to start the future goals.

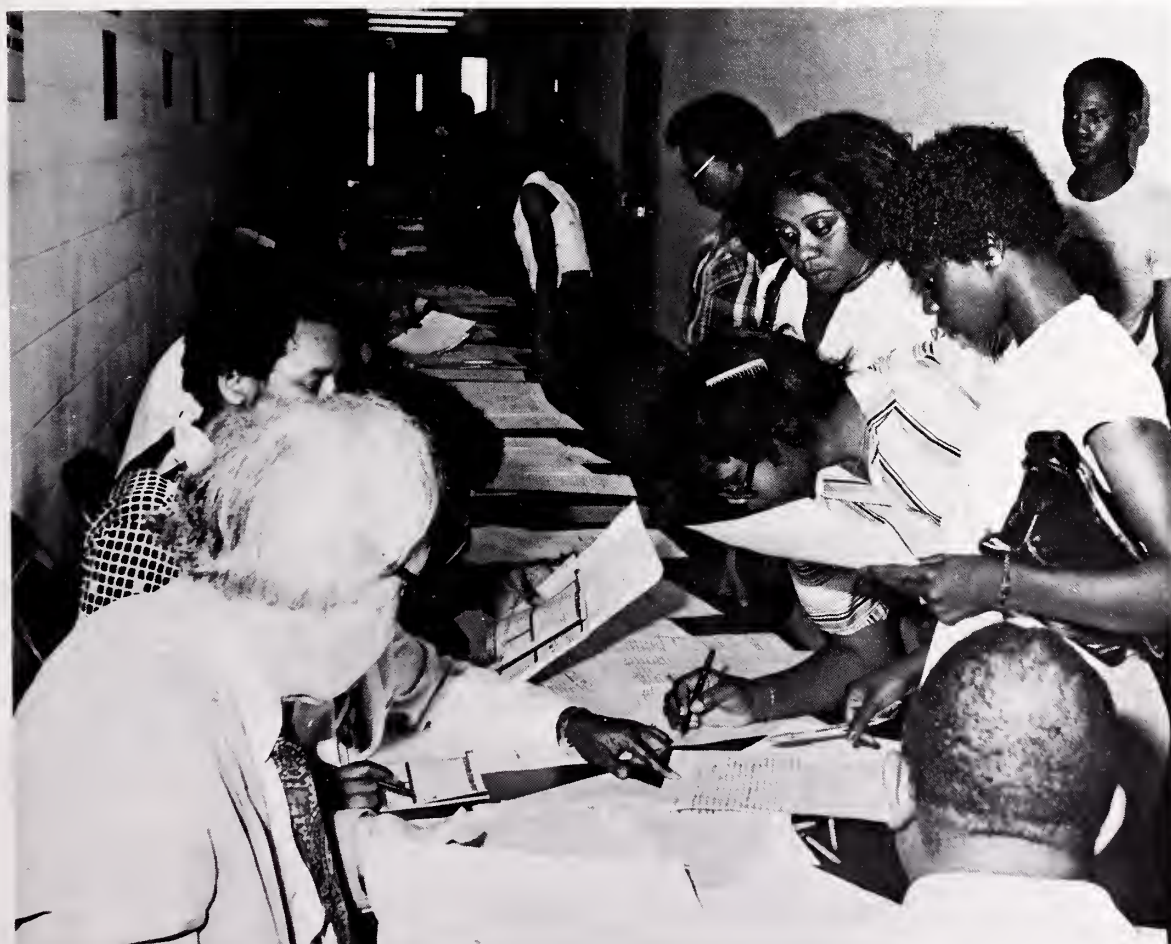

Student leaders take advantage of registering before returning students do. The course recording table is the last step of registration.

In the Business Office, all students, especially freshmen, will always remember Mrs. A. Neal (right) and Mrs. M. Burgess (left).

Registration Begins New Year

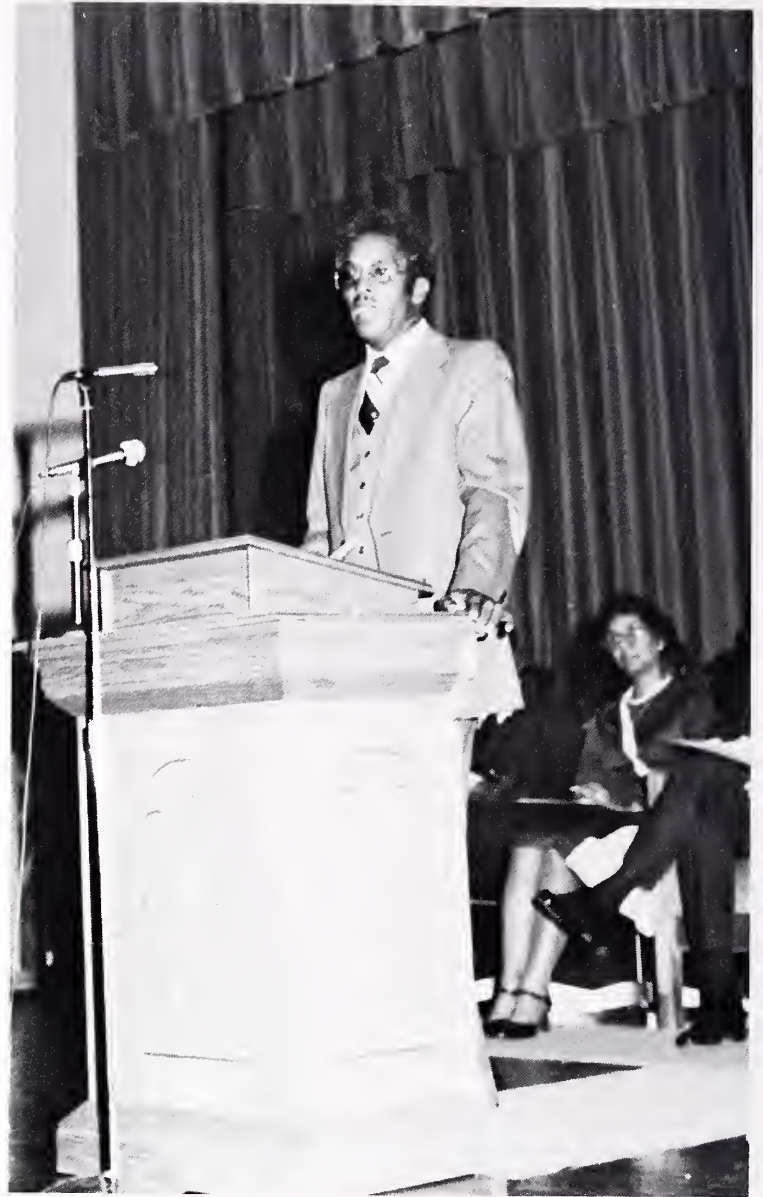

(upper left) Ann Thompson speaks to Ms. Hall, advisor, in the Division of Social Sciences, History and Pre-Law Studies about her schedule for the Fall semester. (right) Tarry Stanley speaks with Dr. Joshi, Professor of the Division of Education, about the courses he has pre-registered for, while Mr. Ramsey and Mrs. Nelson chat.

Student leaders mix in with Freshmen as registration takes place in the lobby of the W.H. Neal-Iola Jones Fine Arts Center.

Fall Convocation

Vernon A. Dayton, regional director of the National Alliance of Business College and Industry Relations Program was the guest speaker for the fall convocation at Morris College. Dayton is on loan to NAB where he serves as small disadvantaged business coordinator.

Dr. J.O. Rich, President of the Baptist Educational and Missionary Convention was present at the convocation to bring greetings to the Morris College family.

Rev. O.T. Hill Opened School of Religion Year

Rev. Oliver T. Hill, pastor of the Flat Ruff Baptist Church, Laurens, South Carolina, was the guest speaker at the opening convocation of the Morris College School of Religion on Thursday, October 15, 1981.

A native of Greenville, S.C., Rev. Hill is a graduate of Morris College. He received his Master of Divinity Degree from Duke University Divinity School, Durham, N.C.

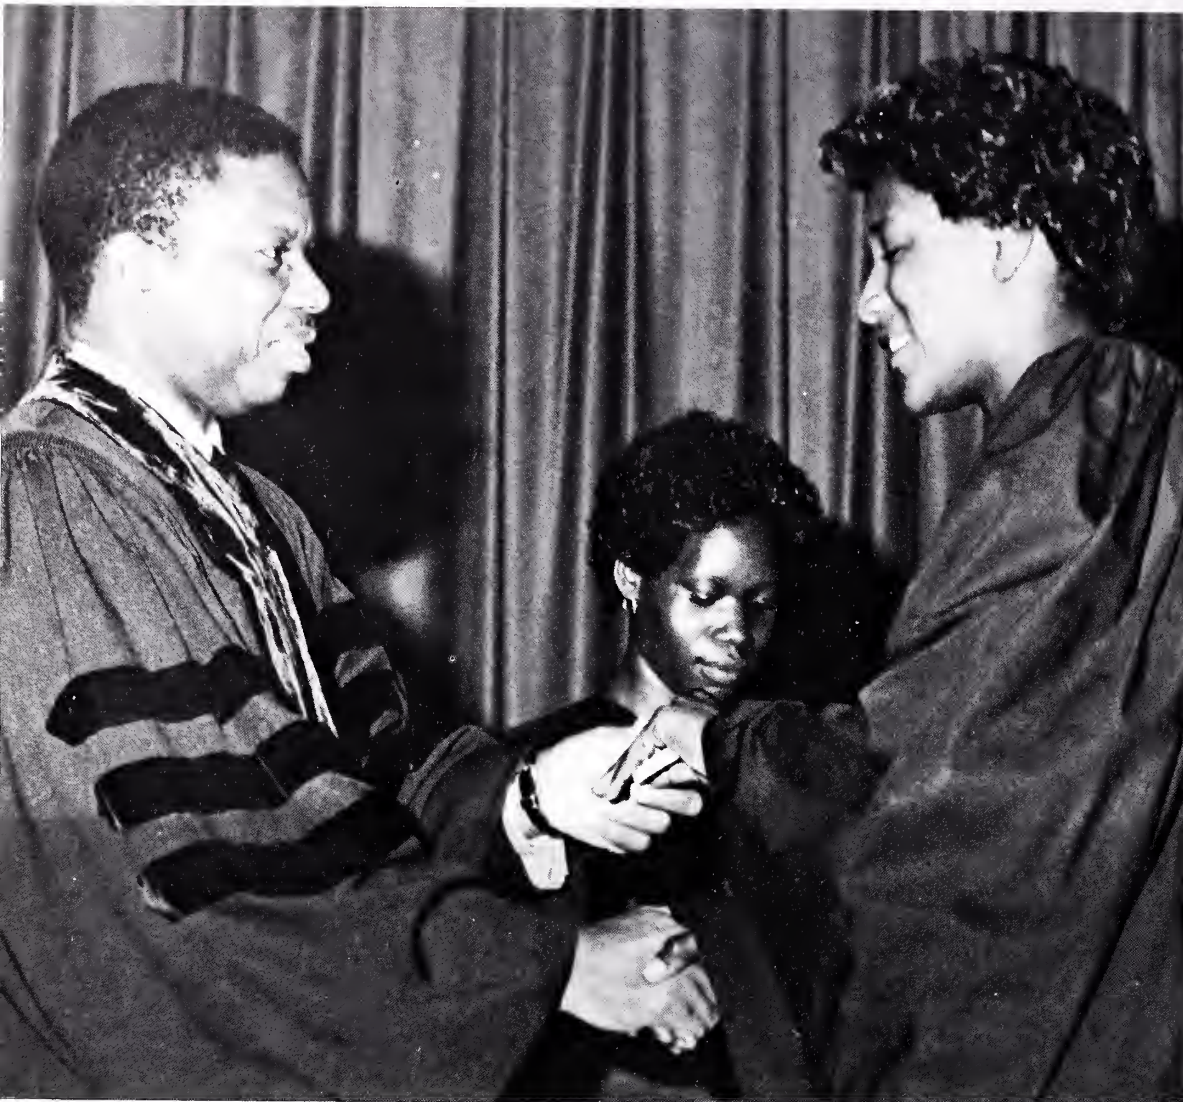

He is a member of the Greenville Ministerial Alliance, South Carolina Educational and Missionary Convention and the National Conference of Black Seminarians.

At Duke University, Rev. Hill served as vice president, Black Seminarians Union; chairperson, Gardner C. Taylor and Martin Luther King, Jr. Lecture Series; and lecturer to the undergraduate students.

SPECIAL ASSEMBLIES EMPHASIZE

Morris College Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society held its induction ceremony, Thursday, September 17 at 11 a.m. in the Neal-Jones Auditorium. President Richardson was the speaker for the occasion.

The College inducted nine students and two faculty members into the Society. They were Carolyn Baines, Michael Billie, James Barron, Rodie Lamb, Harry Lash and Barbara Oglesby. Also, Betty Spann, Linda Stroble and Robert Thorn. Faculty inductees were Eliza Black and Bobby Brisbon.

Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society, Inc. is a general Scholarship Society which is open to both men and women of junior and senior classification who qualify academically. Eligibility to active membership is based upon junior or senior classification with a minimum of 60 semester hours (provided this is 50% of the hours needed for graduation) and a cumulative grade point ratio of at least 3.3 on a 4.00 scale. Transfer students shall be in residence for at least two semesters with a minimum of 30 semester hours earned at the new institution toward a degree.

Alpha Kappa Mu was founded in November, 1938, on the campus of the then Tennessee A & I State College in Nashville by Dr. George W. Gore, Jr., Dean of the college. There are now more than seventy-five active chapters of the Society on the campuses of regionally-accredited colleges and universities, and has been a member of the Association of Colleges Honor Societies since 1952.

DR. CHERRY WAS SPEAKER FOR HONOR DAY

Dr. Verna Mungin Cherry, a professor at Benedict College, was the guest speaker for the Honor Day ceremonies. Included in her many honors is membership in Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society.

YOUTH MOTIVATION TASK FORCE MAKES FALL

VISIT TO

The Morris College Office of Co-operative Education and Career Planning and Placement and the National Alliance of Business (NAB) sponsored a Youth Motivation Task Force Program (YMTF) at Morris College on October 27-29, 1981.

The YMTF brought together informed, dedicated, and successful minority professionals to increase student awareness of how the world of work operates. These provided students with the direction and insight in making realistic career decisions.

The YMTF members visited classrooms and shared with students their experiences in the world of work. Their main goal was to encourage college students to create objectives and to correlate their college work to these ends.

The program's co-sponsor, NAB, is an independent non-profit corporation working in partnership with business, labor, government, education and community-based groups to reduce unemployment problems of economically disadvantaged youth and adults.

Since the College YMTF's inception in 1965, over 30,000 minority business men and women from business and industry have participated and have had direct contact with nearly five million students.

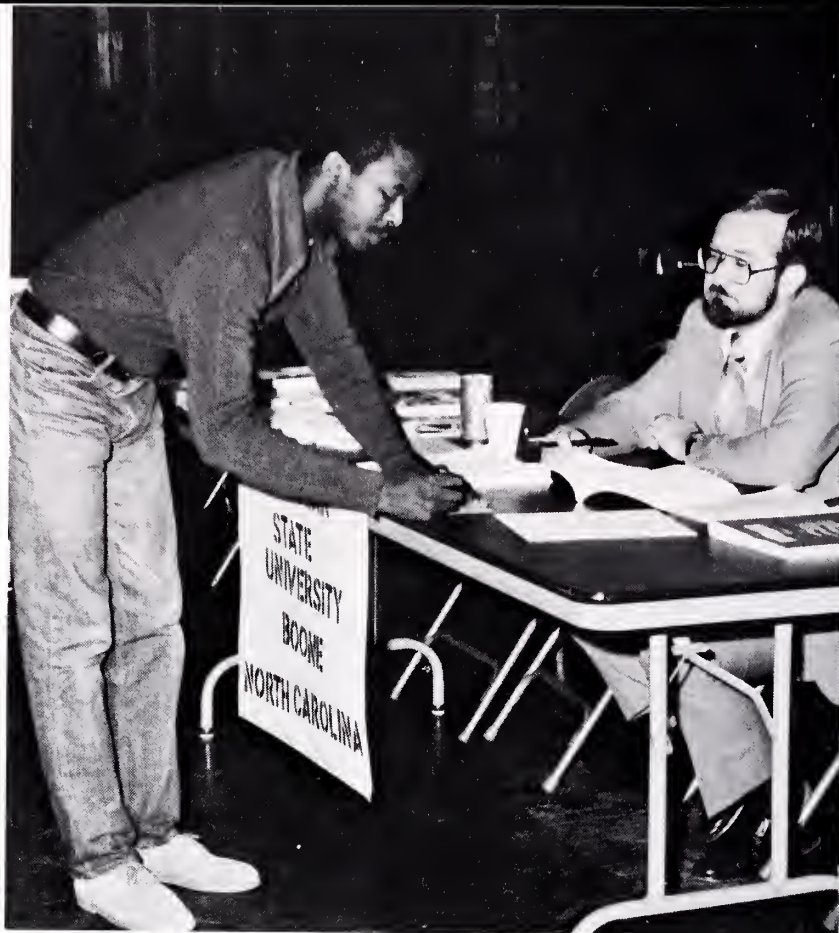

GRADUATE SCHOOL VISITATION DAY

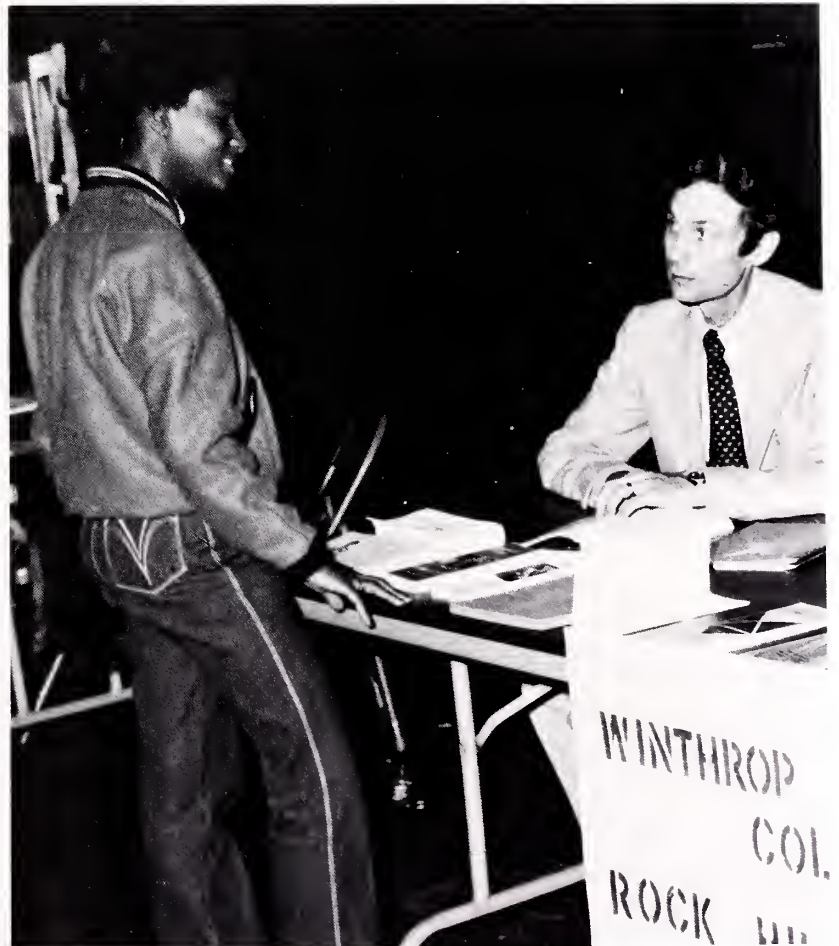

Morris College sponsored its first Graduate and Professional Schools Information Clinic Friday, October 30, 1981. The clinic was held from 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. in the Garrick-Boykins Gymnasium.

Colleges that were represented at the clinic were: Michigan University, Ann Arbor, Mi.; Atlanta University, Atlanta, Ga.; Ohio College of Pediatric Medicine, Cleveland, Ohio; North Carolina Central, Durham, N.C.; and Appalachian State University, Boone, N.C.

Also South Carolina State College, Orangeburg, S.C.; Winthrop College, Rock Hill, S.C.; College of Charleston, Charleston, S.C.; Clemson University, Clemson, S.C.; and University of South Carolina, Columbia, S.C.

The recruiters provided information about the different graduate programs, financial aid and provided procedures for admission.

PRESIDENT'S LECTURE SERIES FEATURE THE HONORABLE JUDGE MATTHEW PERRY

The Honorable Matthew J. Perry, Jr., United States District Judge, Greenville, S.C., was the guest speaker for the Morris College President's Lecture Series assembly Tuesday, October 20, 1981. A Columbia native, Judge Perry received the Bachelor of Science and the Bachelor of Laws degrees from South Carolina State College, Orangeburg, South Carolina.

He is a member of the American, National and South Carolina bar associations. Also, the Omega Psi Phi, Sigma Pi Phi, and Phi Alpha Delta Fraternities.

Among the several awards and honors bestowed upon Judge Perry are the following: South Carolinian of the Year (1977), Cosmos Broadcasting Company, WIS Television, Columbia, South Carolina; Distinguished Native Son, South Carolina Conference of Branches, NAACP; and Distinguished Alumni Award, South Carolina State College, 1976.

In 1975, Judge Perry was nominated by President Gerald Ford and unanimously confirmed by the Senate in September 1979 as United States District Judge for the District of South Carolina. The Oath of office was administered September 22, 1979.

AND MAJOR GENERAL HENRY DOCTOR

Major General Henry Doctor, Jr., was the guest speaker at the President's Lecture Series on Thursday, November 12, 1981.

General Doctor is a South Carolina native. He received a Bachelor of Science Degree from South Carolina State College and upon graduation was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Infantry. He has completed more than 26 years active service in the Army including assignments in Europe, Korea, Alaska, and Vietnam.

He is a graduate of the Infantry Officer Basic and Advanced Courses; the United States Army War College. He holds a Masters of Arts Degree in Counseling from Georgia State University.

Prior to arrival at Headquarters U.S. Army Material Development and Readiness Command, General Doctor was assistant division commander, 24th Infantry Division (Mechanized) at Fort Stewart/Hunter Army Airfield, Georgia. Other assignments he has had in the last ten years include: director of enlisted personnel, U.S. Army Military Personnel Center in Alexandria, Virginia; commanding officer, 1st Brigade, 25th Infantry Division; director, Psychometrics, U.S. Army War College; chief modern volunteer army control group, United States Army Infantry Center; deputy commander, 197 Infantry Brigade (Separate); and commanding officer, 1st Battalion, 29th Infantry.

Among his awards and decorations are the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal, the Army Commendation Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, and the Combat Infantryman Badge.

General Doctor currently resides in Burke, Virginia with his wife, Janie and three of their four children.

FACULTY, STAFF AND STUDENTS HAVE ANNUAL KICK-OFF PROGRAM

In preparing for the major Fund-raising event of the College, the faculty, staff, and student body assembled in the Neal-Jones Auditorium for the annual Faculty/Staff and Student Body Kick-Off Assembly Rally.

A goal of $20,000 was set, and segments of the immediate College set out to raise funds for the totally voluntary effort.

According to President Richardson, "The participation by the immediate college family is totally voluntary, thus it is symbolic of the commitment and love that they have for the institution."

Class Presidents challenged each other for bragging rights to being number one.

Sister Donovan challenges faculty and staff to "Dig Deep".

President Glenda shouts "Seniors are Number 1!"

Lester Corley gives purpose for the Rally.

FUND-RAISING START AS RALLY

Fund-raising for the 1981-82 academic year got off to a great start as nearly $350,000.00 was raised at the annual Rally Program held Thanksgiving Day.

"Reports from the Baptist Educational and Missionary Convention and its auxiliaries, the Morris College faculty, staff and student body, alumni, and the Sumter business community have given us a good start toward our goal of $1 million," Richardson said. This is the highest amount ever raised at a Thanksgiving Rally.

The Rally is the College's major fund-raising affair and monies raised will go for general operations, campus improvements and the Endowment Fund.

GETS EXCELLENT THANKSGIVING NETS $350,000

"We certainly are impressed by the fund-raising effort thus far," Richardson said, "and we extend words of appreciation to everyone who has supported Morris College throughout the years."

Rally activities were highlighted by the Thanksgiving message delivered by the Rev. Dr. J.O. Rich, President, Baptist E. & M. Convention and pastor of St. Paul Baptist Church of Anderson, SC.

For the occasion of the 73rd Thanksgiving Day celebration, Dr. Rich talked from the subject "When I look back, I see and I think forward."

Dr. Rich said, "In order to see where we are today, we need to look back to those days gone by and see where God has brought Morris College thus far. God has molded Morris College into a UNCF member school and a fully accredited institution."

Rich said that he is fully aware of the circumstances of today—"But we must remember that God is still in control."

THANKSGIVING PARADE

The 1981 Homecoming Parade highlighted a full schedule of activities on Thursday, November 26. The center of attraction this year was the charming Miss Rita Berry, a senior from Orangeburg, South Carolina, who was crowned Miss Homecoming.

The parade was comprised of several entries from members of the Morris College family, distinguished dignitaries, the Sumter Community, the Baptist Family of South Carolina, and several high school marching bands.

The 1981 Homecoming Parade was a very exciting event.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT HIGHLIGHTS YULE SEASON

Christmas activities were highlighted by a splendid concert by the Morris College Chorale (pictured above). The Concert featured several traditional and classical works.

On December 2, students, faculty, and staff gathered around the college's Christmas tree in front of the Academic Building for the annual "carol sing" and the "lighting of the green."

Afterwards, bags of fruit were passed out. Pictured to the right, Dwayne Edwards, Levern Short, and Carlos Taylor prepare fruit for distribution.

Dr. Franklin Colclough was Christmas Speaker

On Thursday, December 3, at the 11:00 a.m. assembly, Rev. Dr. Franklin D. Colclough delivered the Pre-Christmas message. At the college, Colclough is a visiting lecturer in Religion and Philosophy. He pastors Goodwill United Presbyterian Church, Mayesville, South Carolina.

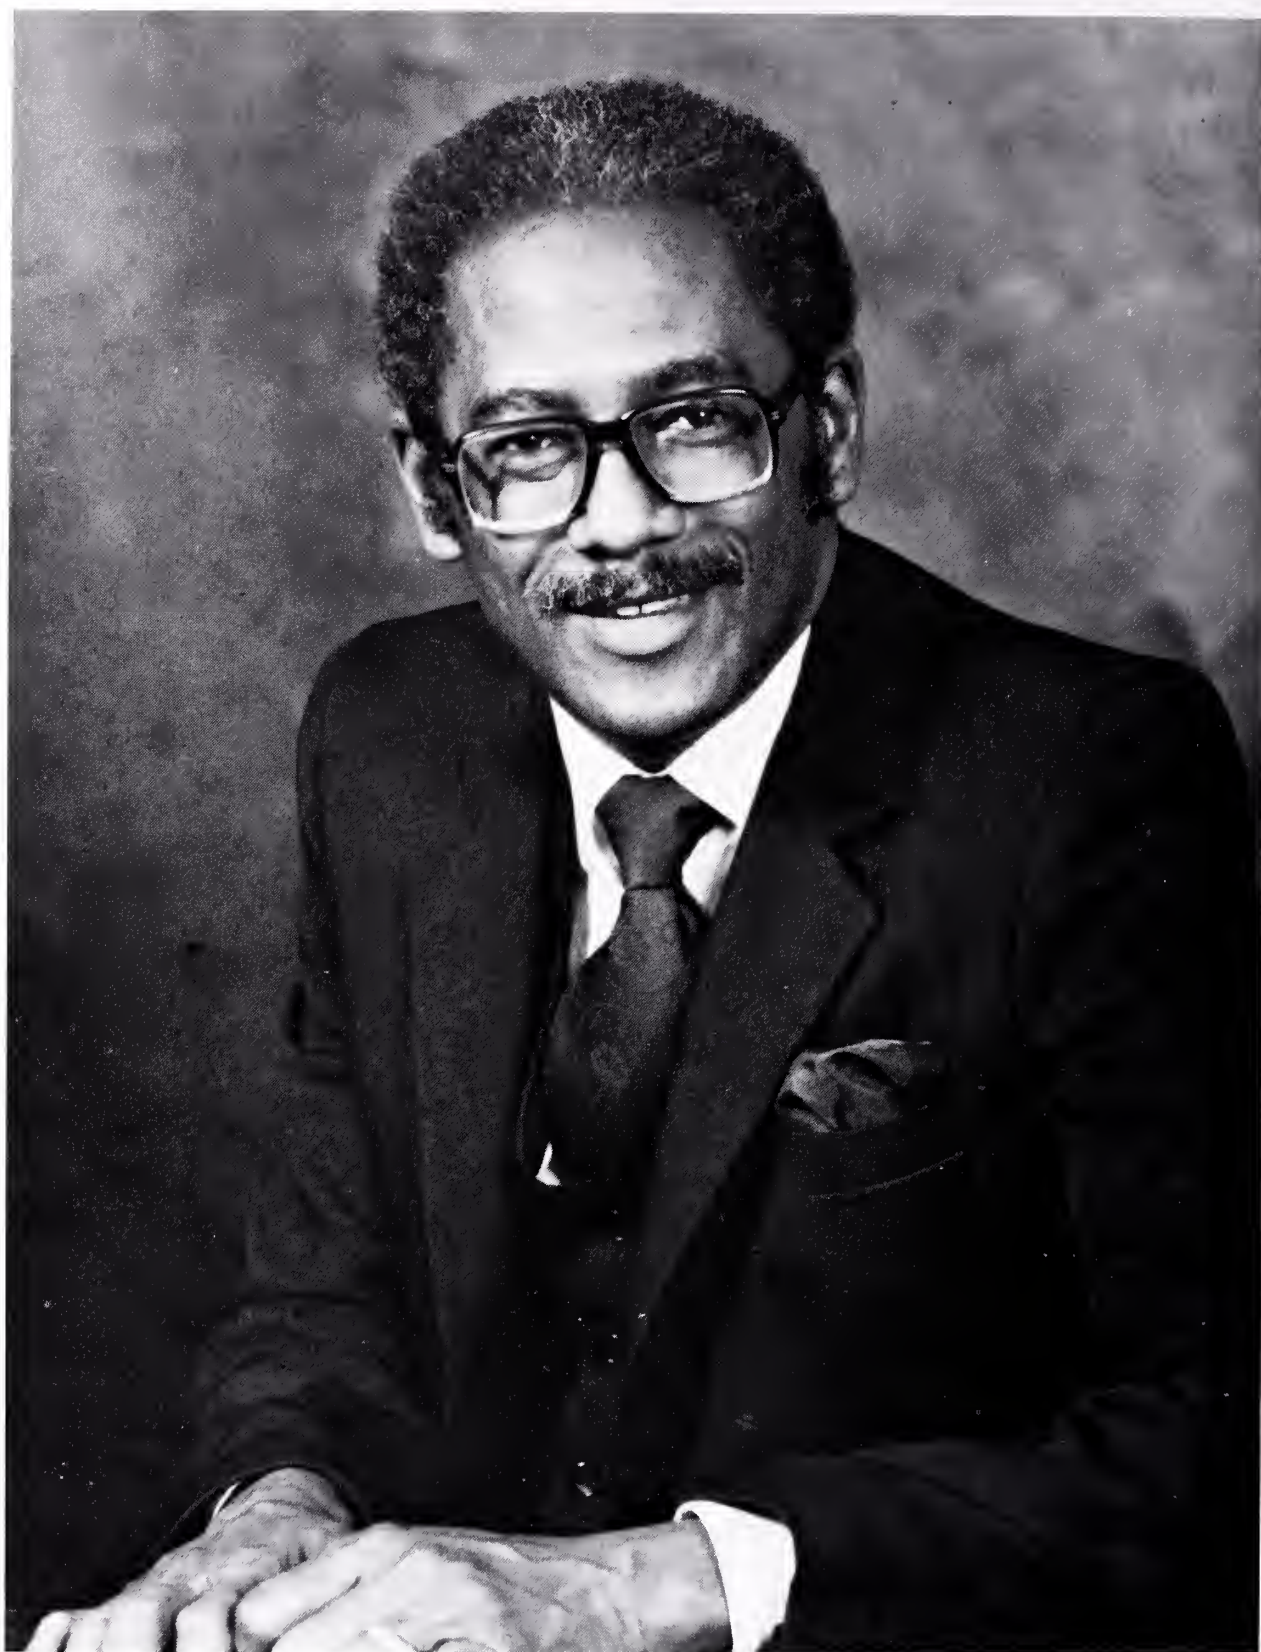

On Sunday, December 6, open house was observed at all residence halls beginning at 2:00 p.m. Dormitory residents were competing for prizes in a door decoration contest.

SGA President Michael Forehand

To My Fellow Students:

If there are any words I have said in this past year that I wish could follow you for the rest of your life, they are to be and to strive for success. Life is a game. You're either going to lose or you're going to win. Many of us go into the game feeling defeated before we even play. Just because the color of our skin may be black and we are living in a predominantly white oriented world, this does not mean that we can't succeed. We can succeed and we will succeed.

Morris College is our stepping stone to success. Yes, this institution of 74 years of age is the place at which we will obtain the necessary knowledge that will thrust us into the mainstream of life. Though Morris is where we will obtain our higher educational training from a competent faculty and staff who are here to feed our minds their knowledge, we can not and should not be totally dependent on Morris. We must be able to learn outside the classroom. Reading books, magazines, or staying atop current events should be major priorities of the serious minded college student. Don't sit back and let time slip away because time waits on no one. Don't be an individual who 10 to 20 years from now will haunt himself or herself by saying "I wish I had done this in school" or "I wish I could have done that." Do it while you've got the time and don't let anyone say you can't.

In every endeavor you choose to take, be it now or in the future, I wish each of you the best of luck. Remember, keep the faith in the man upstairs. You'll need him with each step you take.

In closing, once again I wish you luck and I ask you to set your goals and believe in the dream. I'll miss all of you.

The School of Religion has devised programs geared to prepare persons for the ministry, at whatever level these persons might be found, provided such individuals are willing to make the efforts necessary to lift themselves to the point where they will be proficient in their area of performance.

The School of Religion has to its credit a record of developing preachers, and christian workers. A most unique training plan produced by the School has been its ability to train persons for the B.Th. and

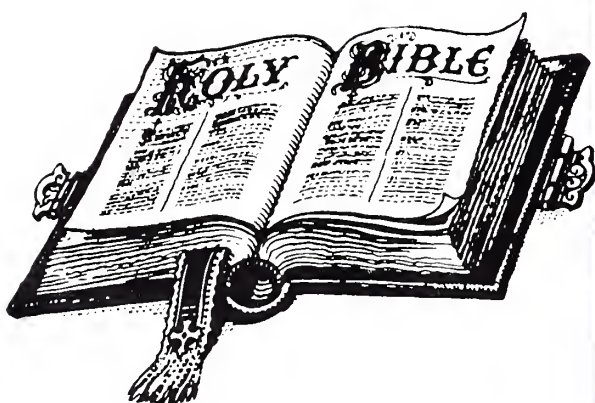

B.D. Degrees who have been willing to share their training with others in local communities through the School of Religion's Extension and Continuing Education Programs.

The School of Religion curriculum embraces the classical subjects as exemplified in the traditional theological rootage; and the contemporary approach as exemplified by new directions in clinical training.

WE HAD FUN LISTENING . . .

Exciting guest speakers were the highlight of the assembly season during the 1981-82 school year.

Among them were Colonel William R. Austin, II, Deputy Commander, 363rd Combat Support Group, Shaw Air Force Base, who spoke for the Veterans Day Assembly on November 3, 1981. Theme for the program was "Veterans and the Armed Forces in the 80's."

Dr. Harold Patterson was the American Education Week Keynote. Patterson is superintendent of Sumter School District #17. How well do we remember Patterson's "Amen, Brother" message in which he emphasized the need for students to be well-prepared to face new educational challenges.

For the Easter Assembly, we were privileged to an inspiring message from the Reverend Doctor W.H. Neal, chairman of the Morris College Board of Trustees. Dr. Neal as an active pastor, businessman, and civic leader.

They each urged us to REACH FOR A BETTER TOMORROW!

MID-WINTER RALLY BRINGS IN AN ADDITIONAL $50,000

Dr. Henry Ponder was Guest Speaker

Our fund raising success story continued with the annual Mid-Winter Banquet on February 26. Over $50,000 was raised on this our second major fund raising occasion. Dr. Henry Ponder, (above), president of Benedict College, Columbia, South Carolina, was the guest speaker.

Several awards were presented at the Banquet. To the right, Mrs. Ida Mallard, an alumnus, receives a President's Club Certificate.

COKER COLLEGE PRESIDENT ISSUED HONOR DAY CHALLENGE

Dr. James, D. Daniels, President of Coker College, Hartsville, South Carolina, was the guest speaker for the Spring Honor Convocation. Dr. Daniels exhibited a mastery of communication skill with his address. His challenge will serve as food for thought and will long remain with all who heard his inspirational remarks.

ATTY. PATRICIA RUSSELL ELECTRIFIED THE WHO'S WHO CONVOCATION

"No Deposit-No Return" Brings Them to their feet!!

On Thursday, April 22, Attorney Patricia A. Russell was the speaker for the Morris College Who's Who Convocation, serving also as the last program for the 1981-82 President's Lecture Series, was held at 11 a.m. in the Neal-Jones Auditorium.

An Indianapolis, Indiana native, Attorney Russell is a graduate of Kentucky State University and Howard University School of Law. She has done further study at Harvard University School of Law.

She serves as the Chief Complaints Branch; Complaints and Compliance Division, Broadcast Bureau, Federal Communications Commission (FCC), Washington, D.C.

Attorney Russell received a standing ovation for her outstanding mixture of fiery oratory. She was super.

Students selected to Who's Who were Carolyn Baines, James Barron, Michael Billie, Emily Cuttino, Michael Forehand, Valerie Franklin, Glenda Howard, Rodie Lamb, Harry Lash, Vermell McBride, Barbara Oglesby, Herman Small, Betty Spann, Linda Stroble, Sandy Sumpter, and Robert Thorne.

THEATRE GROUP PROVIDES ENRICHMENT

A cultural enrichment was provided by the Afro-American Players in the rendition "Sometimes I Find It Hard To Sing And Dance." The Players, comprised of Glodean Baker, Freddie Gardner, and David Ray Keys, performed during Black History Month on February 14.

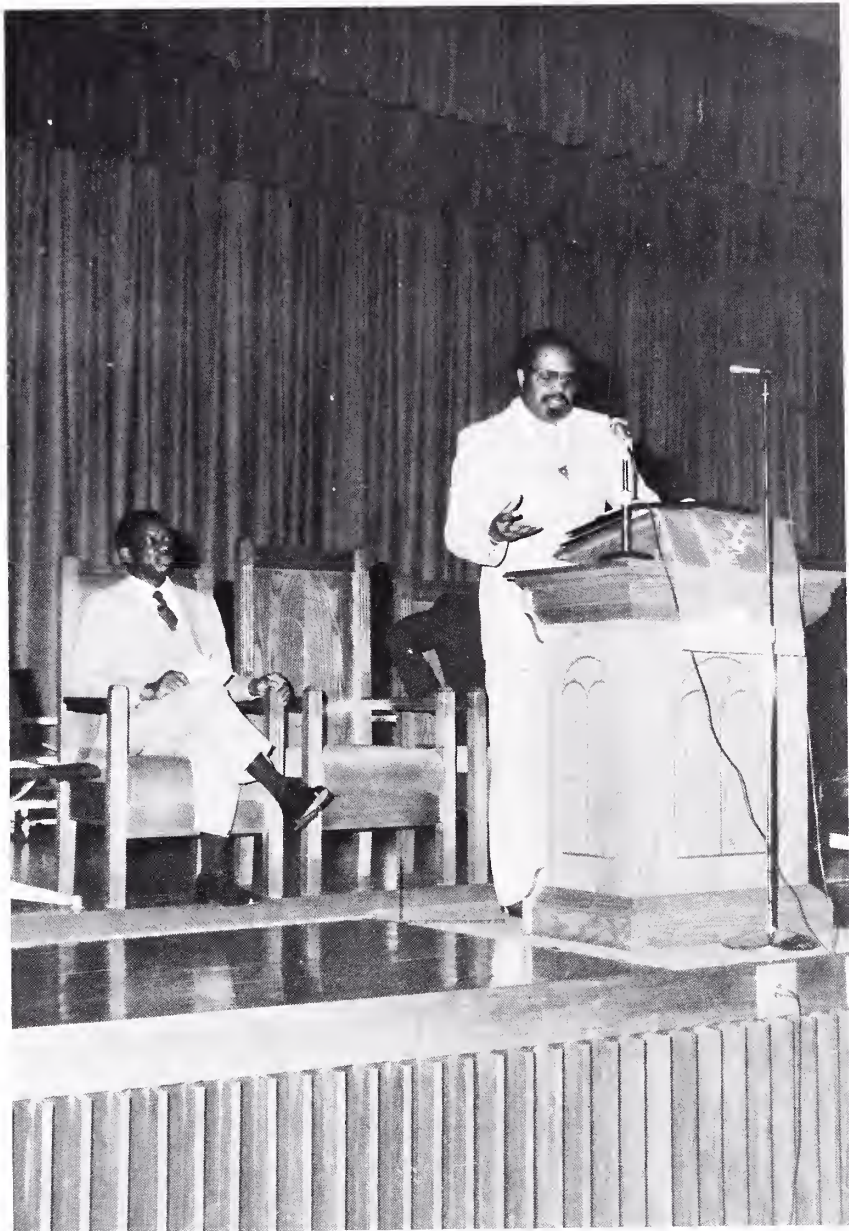

WHILE COLLEGE AND COMMUNITY WORK TOGETHER ON PROJECTS

The campus community kept close ties with the external community throughout the school year. Above, members of the Sumter Alumni Chapter make final preparations for sponsoring the Morris College Chorale in an annual Spring concert.

Several distinguished persons were in attendance and some served as judges in the oratorical contest. Dr. Bell did an excellent job, as usual, in coordinating the program. Pictured above, oratorical contest participants await their turn at the speaker's podium.

Dr. Adams Returned For Religious Emphasis Week Observance . . .

Dr. Charles G. Adams, pastor of Hartford Mamorial Baptist Church of Detroit, Michigan, completed his eighth year of service as the speaker for Religious Emphasis Week. Dr. Adams, one of America's great pulpiteers, was received by an enthusiastic student body.

Adams received a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Michigan; a bachelor of divinity degree, with honors, from Harvard Divinity School; and honorary doctorates from Birmingham Baptist College and Morris College.

Characterized by many students as the "Harvard Hooper," Adams is best known for the strong content and contemporary messages within his sermons, and his fantastic vocabulary. Below, he chats with former President Dr. Henry Hardin and President Richardson.

... while Football
Star, Freddie Solomon
was Guest ...

Freddie Solomon, wide receiver for the 1982 Superbowl Champion San Francisco 49'ers was a special guest during the Spring Honor Convocation. Solomon, a Sumter native, signed autographs and dialogued with the students. At the right, Solomon receives congratulations from Dean Anna Reuben.

President Richardson welcomed Solomon, and indicated that Morris College would consider having a Freddie Solomon Day in the future. At the right, Development Officer J. David Weeks, tells students not to rush, there's plenty of time for autographs.

But it was too late (below) as students flocked to get close to the young star. Maybe next time, Mr. Weeks ...

A FAREWELL MESSAGE

CATHY

As we leave this place and go on to reach for a better tomorrow, we sincerely hope that the 1981-82 edition of the Hornets Yearbook bring back fond memories of what yesterday was.

The completion of this book depended upon cooperation of the faculty, staff, and students and to them we give special thanks. We would also like to thank Dr. Luns, C. Richardson for his support and cooperation in not rejecting any decisions made by the staff.

Special thanks goes to our Associate Editor, Ann Watson and to our most faithful and industrious staff members—Also to Mr. J. David Weeks, our Advisor who spent long hours and lots of patience guiding us to completion.

Last, but not least, we extend our great appreciation to The Herff Jones Publishing Company and our Yearbook Representative, Mr. Steve Karelitz. Finally we would like to thank Mr. Walden Harris, our school photographer.
